

Checklist for Assessment

Use this list to guide assessment before and after reading. Focus on the student during reading, noting their strengths and challenges. Consider using an audio recording during reading for reflection afterward.

Is the student motivated?

What does the student think about the text?

How does the student solve problems?

How does the student read words and sentences?